1. The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo by Taylor Jenkins Reid (Not currently on AR)

Unknown reporter Monique Grant is chosen by aging and reclusive Hollywood icon Evelyn Hugo to reflect on her life. The actress re-tells her story from when she arrived in Los Angeles in the 50s to her decision to leave Hollywood in the 80s, and off course the story behind those seven husbands. As Evelyn's story concludes it becomes clear as to why Monique was specifically chosen to tell Evelyn's story.

2. A Court of Thorns and Roses by Sarah J Maas (Not currently on AR)

Follows the story of Feyre, a young huntress whose survival, and that of her father and two sisters, depends on her ability to hunt. Living in a cold and bleak place Feyre ends up killing a wolf, but no ordinary wolf. Killing something so special comes with a price.... Feyre is dragged to a magical kingdom where her captor, his face obscured by a jewelled mask is hiding more than what his piercing green eyes would suggest, but she can't help how her feelings for him change. Feyre must fight to break an ancient curse or lose him forever. A Court of Thorns and Roses is the first in a series of five books following Feyres's journey through the magical fairy world.
