My Brother's Name is Jessica By John Boyne (AR Level 5.4)

Sam is super close to his big brother, Jason. Whilst Sam has always been a bit of a loner who's never been very good at making friends, Jason has been popular, good at sports and a hit with the girls. One day Jason calls for a family meeting, he has a secret he wishes to discuss with them. A secret which threatens to tear them all apart. Sam just can't understand it, and his parents don't seem to want to know. What are you supposed to do when your brother decides he is no longer your brother but your sister?

Me, My Dad and the End of the Rainbow By Benjamin Dean

(AR Level 5.8)

My name's Archie

Albright, and I know two things for certain:

1. My mum and dad kind hate each other, and they're not doing a great job of pretending that they don't anymore. 2. They're both keeping a secret from me, but I can't figure out what. The answer might just lie at the end of the rainbow...

Tremendous Things by Susan Nielson (AR Level 4.5)

A bullied teenager falls in love with the French exchange student and determines to change in order to win her heart but things do not go as planned.

Wilbur has spent his teens being bullied and now he's sure he's nothing but a loser: his best friend is 85 years old, and his only talent is playing the triangle in the school band. Things start to look up when a mix-up with the French exchange programme results in Wilbur being assigned a girl to look after - an amazing, sophisticated, beautiful French girl called Charlie. Wilbur is sure he's in love, and his sometime friend Alex has a plan to give Wilbur the makeover that will get Charlie to love him back. But the course of true love never did run smooth.
