Dear Parent/Carer,

World Book Day is celebrated on the 4th March this year. In view of the current situation, the charity have provided a digital token for students to use which you should find attached with this email.

The new single-use £1 digital token can be printed out or shown to booksellers/supermarket staff on a phone or tablet screen. The charity recommends that parents/carers check with their local bookseller to ensure they are participating beforehand. I am afraid that the token cannot be used to purchase books online.

The tokens can be used from Thursday 18th February until 28th March. Some participating bookshops may honour the tokens beyond this date, subject to availability. The tokens can be swapped for one of the twelve free World Book Day books or you can receive a £1 discount of any full price book or audiobook, provided that the book/audiobook costs more than £2.99.

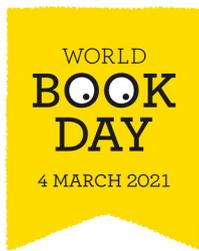

There are twelve free titles to choose from and details about the books, token terms and conditions can be found at the official website. There are also a range of activities and recommended reads on the website that you may find useful.

Happy World Book Day!

Kind Regards
